

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By registering for the E-Networking programme, it shall be deemed that each Member E-Cell has agreed to be bound by the following terms and conditions :

Obligations:

- A member from the E-Cell must be identified to act as a Point of Contact.
- Should promote all E-Cell IIT Hyderabad's events in their college/campus/network, both on online and offline platforms.
- Help individuals or similar organisations interested in the activities or events conducted by E-Cell IITH reach us.
- The relationship will last for at least 1 year and can be renewed/terminated again by the mutual consent of both the parties.

Relationship:

- E-Cell IITH will act as a mentor and provide guidance to expand and establish the member E-Cells. The relationship shall be more on a principle to principle basis and shall not be construed to be master and servant.
- The member E-Cell will be included in a social community of E-cells.
- The students of all the member E-cell's institution will be provided with special offers on the events conducted by E-Cell IITH.
- Members can ask other co-members to circulate the information regarding any event in their network.

Conditions:

- The member E-Cell will be allowed to include or use E-Cell IITH's name in promotional instances only when informed prior to the usage of the same.
- The Member E-Cell shall not misuse the name of this programme or shall not use it without our permission.
- Database Privacy – The Member E-Cell must not share the E-Cell IITH's database with other individuals or organisations.

The member E-Cell can no longer be a part of the mentorship programme in case of any breach in the above terms and conditions, if it acts in any manner that does not align with the values of E-Cell IITH community or if it acts in any manner that could cause harm to E-Cell IITH, its members and community. Whenever such activity is discovered, the E-Cell will be intimated two weeks before any action is taken against it on the aforementioned grounds.